

60 Night Mattress Trial

Sterling Beds understands that selecting a new mattress is a major decision due to the importance of getting a good night's sleep and the expense involved. We have, therefore, developed our '60 Night Mattress Trial' for peace of mind. We recommend sleeping on the new mattress for at least 30 nights to get accustomed to the comfort and tension before considering another. This is how it works;

STEP 1 – Select any mattress from the large number in the trial.

STEP 2 – Purchase a 'Protect-A-Bed' mattress protector simultaneously.

STEP 3 – Take up to 60 nights to test the mattress for suitability.
